

The Lowry Galleries Visual Story

Welcome to The Lowry -

This Visual Story will give you a step-by-step guide of how to get around the Lowry to help plan your visit.

It's free to visit the Galleries and there's always something to see and do.

Finding the Lowry

The Lowry is located on the Quays and can be found on Pier 8 right next to the river.

It is a large, metal and glass building made of lots of different shapes.

The entrance is located in the big square opposite the MediaCity shopping centre.

When you arrive

The Lowry has one main entrance that is at street level with step-free access.

This floor is a largely level surface with tactile paving.

There is a textured matt flooring in the entrance to The Lowry building and the doors are automatic when activated by a push-button.

When you enter the building there will be friendly members of the Security Team to greet you.

You may be asked to open your bag so it can be checked, but don't worry the team are doing this to help keep visitors safe.

The Main Welcome Desk

The Front of House team are here during opening hours to welcome you and offer assistance, they can help you find your way around the building.

The Front of House Team

The welcoming and friendly Front of House team are here to help.

They will be wearing red or purple tops as seen in the image.

Accessible Toilets

On the Galleries level there are accessible toilets as well as gendered toilets.

Changing Places Toilet

To access the Changing Places Toilet from the Galleries please go back to level 0 where the main entrance to the building is.

The Changing Places is on the Lower Ground Level down a sloped walkway. Users can use their own RADAR key or they can collect one from the Welcome Desk in our entrance foyer.

Please don't hesitate to ask the Welcome Desk Staff for directions.

Heading to the Galleries

Inside the building is very colourful with orange, yellow, red and purple surfaces.

Turn right when you are inside the building to begin your journey to the Galleries!

You'll then see an escalator which will lead you straight to the Galleries Welcome Desk.

Lift Access to the Galleries

There is also a lift to the Galleries.

Keep walking past the escalators on the ground floor and go through the large purple wall to get to this.

Just press button number 2 to get to the Galleries Level!

You will see this colourful interior when you exit the lift!

Turn left from the lift and walk along the textured vinyl bridge to get to the Galleries Welcome Desk.

Galleries Welcome Desk

The Galleries Welcome Desk is staffed by our friendly Galleries team.

The team are here help during your visit and can answer any questions about exhibitions and access requirements in the Galleries.

We also have ear defenders on offer at the Galleries Desk, please don't hesitate to ask for a pair if needed.

Rules in the Gallery

There is no food or drink allows in the Galleries, be sure to enjoy these before or after your visit!

Julia and Axel Exhibition

You will find lots of fun activities in the Julia and Axel exhibition.

It's very colourful with lots of fun things to do!

There is some background music in parts of this exhibition as well as televisions which have animations playing (these do not have sound but are subtitled).

Entrance to the Lowry Exhibition from Julia and Axel

When you go into the Lowry Exhibition remember the artworks can't be touched but feel free to go close to the artworks to get a proper look at them.

The Lowry Exhibition

The Lowry Exhibition can be accessed at the back of the Julia and Axel Exhibition (as pictured above) or by turning right at the Galleries Welcome Desk (this is pictured to the right).

There is lots of natural light along this walkway and you can see across the river!

The Promenade

Along the promenade you can find text exploring Lowry's life as an artist.

Please note there is a metal grid throughout the length of this space (on the right along the window) that can be quite noisy when you walk along it.

The Quiet Room

This is a calm and relaxed space located on the Promenade for visitors to use during the Galleries Relaxed Hour on Sunday.

In this space there will be sensory seating and a sensory bubble light as well as a selection of sensory toys.

The Lowry Exhibition Main Entrance

Turning left out of the Quiet Room you can walk along the Promenade to get to the main entrance to the Lowry exhibition.

Please note: There is a sloped floor up to the entrance of the exhibition.

Inside the Lowry exhibition

In the Lowry exhibition you can see artworks from the L.S Lowry Collection.

This space has low ceilings and light levels change throughout the space.

You will see members of the Galleries Team invigilating the exhibition space, they are also here to help and answer any exhibition-related questions.

The Main Lowry Room

This room is the largest in the Lowry exhibit.

It has lots of paintings and drawings by L.S.Lowry and a big skylight in the centre.

If a piece has some wire in front of it this means you have to stand behind the wire because the work is fragile.

Visit The Carole Nash Lookout Space

The Carole Nash Lookout is opposite the Galleries Welcome Desk.

This is a space for families to get creative and play.

There is colouring in, role play areas, a soft play space and a reading area for you to enjoy.

The Pier Eight Restaurant

If you head back down from the Galleries to the main entrance and continue to follow the building around you can visit the Pier Eight Restaurant.

Inside Pier Eight Restaurant

There is laminate vinyl flooring throughout the restaurant space and there is usually music playing outside of the Relaxed Hour.
