

Well done for completing the activities! Have fun writing your fantastically great story. Here are a few sentences to help you start:

My name is: (write your name)

and I am fantastically great because I'm:
(write your special words here)

.....

I live in a wonderful place called: (write your home)

.....

and I have lots of adventures like:
(write about the amazing dreams you want to achieve)

.....

.....

Sometimes my adventures are scary, but I know I can do them because: (write about who helps you; maybe this is your friend or your family, or a favourite pet!)

.....

 Top tip! Look at the favourite books you found earlier – if you like magic stories, you can add a magical creature to your story! Or if you like funny books, think of things that make you laugh and include them in your story.

For the chance to become a published author like Jane, send a picture or scanned version of your finished story to: marketing@kennywax.com. Or, you could post your story to: Fantastic Marketing Team, Kenny Wax Limited, 8th Floor, Imperial House, 8 Kean Street, London, WC2B 4AS.

Join the Fantastically Great Women Who Changed the World at Theatre Royal Stratford East until 17 July and at the Pleasance Grand, Edinburgh, from 4 - 29 August.

fantasticallygreatwomenthemusical.com

   @fantasticallyGW

KS2 ACTIVITY SHEET

Everyone here is fantastic and has a great story to tell.

Are you ready to tell us your story?

Complete the activities below to help you create your story, with a chance to be featured in 'The Fantastically Great Library of YOU'!

 "Easy? No. Possible? Yes."

Jane Austen wrote some of the world's best loved books. She had to work hard, because lots of people said women couldn't be authors in 1811.

Jane liked to write heart-breaking, romantic stories. What type of stories do you like? Maybe spy novels, outer space stories, or funny books?

To help you decide, find three books that you like at the library! Write down your fantastically great books here:

.....

.....

.....

Top tip! You can ask your librarian for help!

Great choices! Try to describe why these books are 'fantastically great, using only one or two words:

.....

Hint! You can write words like funny, scary, exciting, pirates, magic, adventure ...!

fantasticallygreatwomenthemusical.com

   @fantasticallyGW

Now you know your favourite type of story, it's time to find your main character: you!

🎵 "I paint my own reality"

Frida Kahlo was an artist. She was also strong, brave and curious. She painted herself, because she wanted to show the world how fantastic she was!

What makes you fantastically great? Circle the words that describe how special you are:

SPORTY NICE CURIOUS
BRAVE FRIENDLY
FUNNY CLEVER KIND
HELPFUL HAPPY
GENEROUS CUDDLY
SMART

Are there any words missing to describe yourself?
Write those special words here:

.....

💡 Top tip! If you can't find any, ask your friends, parent or guardian. They will know what makes you fantastically great!

Now you know what type of stories you like, and you have a fantastically great main character. It's time to find an adventure for your story.

🎵 "This is my life, it's an adventure"

Mary Seacole had lots of adventures during her life. She always wanted to look after sick people, so in 1855, Mary travelled hundreds of miles to help sick and injured troops fighting in the Crimean War. She had a dream and she achieved it!

Draw or write your fantastically great dreams here.
You can use your dreams as inspiration for your main character's adventure!

💡 Hint! If you can't think of a dream, then think of your favourite things first! Maybe there is a favourite place you want to explore, like a city, country or planet? Or maybe you have a favourite sports team that you want to play for, like a football club or Olympic team?

