JULY LISTINGS

ON OUR COVER THIS MONTH

A Chorus Line
Tue 23 – Sat 27 Jul

Seventeen stories. Eight chances. One singular sensation.

New York City. 1975. On an empty Broadway stage, seventeen performers are put through their paces in the final, gruelling audition for a new Broadway musical. Only eight will make the cut.

A Chorus Line is a musical masterpiece that revolutionised Broadway, with creator Michael Bennett using real-life testimonies from late-night recording sessions with dancers. Celebrate the lives of theatre's unsung heroes, as they tell searing stories of ambition, shattered hopes, and what it really costs to follow your dreams.

Queens: The Exhibition
Sat 20 Jul - Sun 3 Nov

Inspired by Six The Musical, this new exhibition will ask 'What kind of Queen are you?' and will start with a celebration of the hit musical SIX, including for the first time in this country a display of all SIX iconic costumes from the show. Visitors will sing, dance, play games and quizzes and even take suitably regal selfies. The exhibition is free – however timed entry slots must be booked.

JULY HIGHLIGHT

Charlie Cook's Favourite Book
Tue 23 Jul - Sun 4 Aug

Charlie loves reading. Especially books about pirates. But his sister hates it – it's boring! Can Charlie convince her that reading is fun? Perhaps if she read a book about a pirate, who is reading a book about Goldilocks, who is reading a book about a knight. Come and delve into a range of books with Charlie Cook this Summer, brought to life with puppetry and enchanting songs, and perhaps you will be able to help his sister discover the wonderful world inside a book.

Based on the original book Charlie Cook Favourite Book – written by Julia Donaldson and illustrated by Axel Scheffler.
